Each time I visit the Lodge, I look forward to Dante's cooking. Regardless of what he's preparing for us, I know his cooking and presentation are consistently top notch.

I've had the opportunity to enjoy many different dishes from shaved steak tacos to prime rib. His use of herbs and seasonings is nothing like anything I've ever experienced. So very flavorful. What I really appreciate is that so many chefs add salt to their cooking. Sometimes it can be too much. I've never experienced this with Dante's preparation.

Dante is approachable and always professional. He always takes the time to answer my questions and engages in pleasant conversation. I look forward to our interactions.

I highly recommend Chef Dante and would be happy to share my experiences further upon request.
